

United States
Board on Geographical Names
Case Study (Domestic)

No. _____

Decision

Date

Case Name Panapi Point

State Arizona

County Mohave

Lat. $36^{\circ} 57' = "$ Long. $112^{\circ} 54' = "$

Source:

Sec. 13

T. 41N R. 6W M.

Source: H.E. Gregory

Submitted by: H.E. Gregory

Date Submitted July 2, 1943

Variants: none

Not:

2. Description: A projection of the ~~lefty~~ Vermilion Cliffs between ~~the villages~~ of Cane Beds and Short Creek. Panapi Creek and Cane Beds Wash, about one mile NW of the village of Cane Beds.
5. Evidence: Not named on General Land Office plat, August 22, 1919.

1. Problem

3. Summary

4. Reason ←

~~Discussion~~ The name is of Piute origin, meaning ~~cottonwood~~ a species of oak, according to H.E. Gregory. It is not listed in Blakeslee's MS Piute dictionary.

Dr. John P. Harrington; BAE: Panapi, "scrub oak"

Prepared by:

Date Completed

OREGON COAST RANGE vs. OREGON COAST RANGES. Evidence partly assembled:

Coast Range Mountains 1889 H.H. Bancroft, History of Oregon 1:12.

Coast Range 1922 Lippincotts Gazetteer.

Coast Ranges 1922 C.H. Carey, History of Oregon, pp. 422, 434.

Coast Range 1938 Warren Smith, Geology and Mineral Resources of Lane County, Oreg., p. 11.

Coast Range 1939 Idem., Oregon Blue Book, p. 139. (1940 edition)

Coast Range 1940 WPA Guide, Oregon, pp. 15, 156, 482.

Coast Range 1940 W.D. Smith, A.L. Lomax, E.T. Hodge., Physical and Economic Geography of Oregon, p. 25.

Coast Range 1943 Encyclopedia Americana.